

IRAF GRANTEES 2023

ORGANIZATION NAME	URGENT NEED	AMOUNT	IMPACT
NewView Institute	Boiler broke at their community headquarters, preventing them from providing services.	$10,000	Purchased and installed new boiler which enabling them to provide individual counseling, coaching, and psycho-educational groups for women and girls experiencing Intimate Partner Violence.
Planned Parenthood Keystone	Decrease in Title X funding which provides charitable care for patients otherwise not able to afford services.	$10,000	Fully cover the cost of 100 patients' care.
Why Not Prosper	Heat stopped working due to corroded pipes in a mostly inaccessible crawl space despite performing all required maintenance.	$10,000	Replaced pipes and fixed damage caused by the system's depressurization enabling them to continue their transitional residential program for formerly incarcerated women as well as their resource center which serves 160 women.
Safe Way Out	Loss of funding to provide emergency housing to survivors of Domestic / Intimate Partner Violence	$10,000	Providing emergency temporary housing to 50 women and children fleeing Domestic / Intimate Partner Violence.
Lutheran Settlement House	Increase in demand for emergency housing services for Domestic Abuse Survivors as well as an increase in the amount of funding needed per survivor.	$10,000	Providing urgent housing related needs for survivors of Domestic Violence including, but not limited to: security deposits, moving costs back-rent (to prevent eviction), short-term rent support, and lock changes.
TOTAL		$50,000	3510 served

GRANTEE SPOTLIGHT

Safe Way Out provides services to survivors of Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence including: emergency housing for women and children escaping DV situations, personal security planning, personal security group classes, and residential security equipment for clients who remain in their homes. They serve Burlington, Camden, and Gloucester - geographic areas not as often funded by WOMEN'S WAY.

WOMEN'S WAY recently provided a $10,000 Immediate Response Action Fund (IRAF) grant to Safe Way Out for their emergency housing program in response to an increase in demand and a loss of funding.

