

In 2019, WOMEN'S WAY launched the WOMEN'S WAY Gender Equity Champion Award to recognize individuals who have demonstrated a deep commitment to the advancement of women, girls, and gender and racial equity through supporting the mission and work of WOMEN'S WAY. The Award will be presented at the 46th Annual WOMEN'S WAY Celebration.

Honoree: Jennifer Rice

Jennifer Rice is a true champion for women's rights and freedoms. Her commitment to the advancement of women, girls, and gender and racial equity is demonstrated by her long-term support of WOMEN'S WAY, her engagement in the community, and her advocacy to support women candidates in leadership positions and for elected office.

Jennifer has contributed in the following ways to the advancement of women and girls:

- Founding member of the WOMEN'S WAY Gender Wealth Advisory Council, a group of individuals committed to closing the gender wealth gap by advancing research and practical solutions that build wealth for women who are economically insecure.
- Long-term donor and vocal advocate for the mission of WOMEN'S WAY throughout the community, including supporting and mentoring women running for political office and seeking leadership positions.
- Co-Founder of the Forman Arts Initiative whose mission includes supporting community-based arts and creativity in Philadelphia through programming, convening, and advocacy.
- Contemporary art collector whose collection represents, among others, women artists whose work elevates and illuminates the challenges and opportunities facing women and girls across the globe.

WOMEN'S WAY is the region's leading organization dedicated to the advancement of women, girls, and gender and racial equity.

The 46th Annual Celebration is WOMEN'S WAY's signature fundraising event and is one of the most highly attended nonprofit events in the Greater Philadelphia area.
